

"Fuck You Amnesty"

Fuck you amnesty
So the bloody men decided,
Never listened to a word we said
Think a woman's place, is in the kitchen
Or brothel in their bed
The pimps and punters bought you
And sold women down the river
Their voices silenced, words ignored
For a pocket full of silver.

So throw our bodies to the dogs, but we will come back stronger
We are worth more than you know and we won't take it any longer
So we will fight on, we will battle, till our body's final breath
To be seen as fully human, we will fight you unto death.

You porn sick men should be ashamed
Of your libertarian agenda
The filmed rape of women
Is your lethal propaganda
You want us tied upon our knees,
You want nothing less than adoration
From those you think you have the right
To use in utter degradation

So throw our bodies to the dogs, but we will come back stronger
We are worth more than you know and we won't take it any longer
So we will fight on, we will battle, till our body's final breath
To be seen as fully human, we will fight you unto death.

So fuck your worldwide org
And fuck your members too
Who believe that women everywhere
Hold no actual value
Yes fuck you sideways Amnesty
You bunch of raping pricks
There are more important things
Than your bloody weeping dicks

So throw our bodies to the dogs, but we will come back stronger
We are worth more than you know, and we won't take it any longer
So we will fight on, we will battle till our body's final breath
To be seen as fully human, we will fight you unto death.
